

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1914. — EDITORIAL

---

A GOOD TICKET.

"THE TIMES" RECOMMENDS TO VOTERS THE FOLLOW-ING CHOICES:

---

State Offices.

Governor—John D. Fredericks, Republican.
Lieutenant-Governor—Jo V. Snyder, Democrat. (There is no Republican candidate.)
Secretary of State—Frank C. Jordan, Republican.
Surveyor-General—Frank E. Wright, Republican.
State Superintendent of Public Instruction—Edward Hyatt, Republican.
State Board of Equalization, Fourth District—Jeff McElvaine, Republican.

Congressional.

United States Senator—Joseph R. Knowland, Republican.
Congress, Ninth District—Frank C. Roberts, Republican.
Congress, Tenth District—Capt. H. Z. Osborne, Republican.
Congress, Eleventh District—James C. Needham, Republican.

State Judiciary.

Chief Justice Supreme Court—Frank M. Angellotti, Republican.
Associate Justice Supreme Court—William P. James, Republican; Lucien Shaw, Republican.

Presiding Judge Second District Court of Appeal.

(Vote for one.)
Gavin W. Craig, Republican.
N. P. Conrey, "Progressive."

County.

District Attorney—W. J. Ford, Republican.
Sheriff—William A. Hammel, Republican.
Assessor—Ed W. Hopkins, Republican.
Supervisor, First District—C. D. Manning, non-partisan.
Supervisor, Third District—Sidney L. Briggs, Republican.

Superior Judge.

The Times suggests the following eligibles from among which the required ten may be selected:
Frank R. Willis, Republican.
Frank W. Blair, Republican.
Joseph F. Chambers, Republican.
Elmer R. McDowell, Republican.
Charles Monroe, Republican.
D. Joseph Coyne, Republican.

Louis W. Myers, "Progressive."
Sidney N. Reeve, Republican.
John W. Shenk, "Progressive."
Leslie R. Hewitt, "Progressive."
Grant Jackson, "Progressive."
J. Vincent Hannon, Democrat.
Stephen G. Long, Democrat.
John L. Fleming, Democrat.

Justice of the Peace, Los Angeles Township.

(Vote for four.)
J. W. Summerfield, Republican.
Henry A. Pierce, Republican.
Frank A. Duggan, Republican.
Walter M. Rheinschild, "Progressive."

Justice of the Peace, Los Angeles City.

(Vote for five.)
Henry E. Carter, Republican.
William Frederickson, Republican.
William D. McConnell, Republican.
T. L. O'Brien, Republican.
Hugh J. Crawford, Republican.
Thomas P. White, Republican.
Charles S. Wilson, Republican.
George S. Richardson, Republican.

For State Senator.

Thirty-sixth District—Rupert B. Turnbull, Republican.
Thirty-eighth District—J. W. Ballard, Republican.

For Assembly.

Sixty-second district—Charles W. Lyon, Republican.
Sixty-third District—Alfred L. Bartlett, Republican.
Sixty-fourth District—C. E. Scott, Republican.
Sixty-fifth District—P. C. Phillips, Republican.
Sixty-sixth District—R. P. Benton, Republican.
Sixty-seventh District—H. B. Pitcher, Republican.
Sixty-eighth District—L. L. Lostutter, Republican.
Sixty-ninth District—H. A. Unruh, Republican.
Seventieth District—Joseph A. Rominger, Republican.
Seventy-second District—Harry A. Chamberlain, Republican.
Seventy-third District—W. H. O'Connell, Republican.
Seventy-fourth District—Edward G. Grubb, Republican.
Seventy-fifth District—Edwin Baker, Republican.

(Note: Frank A. McDonald (Rep.) omitted in Sixty-first; not desirable, nor creditable to party. In Seventy-first F. M. Shepard was nominated and is now under indictment for smuggling. He tried to steal the "Progressive" nomination, but that wasn't what he was indicted for.)