

GOOD WAY TO VOTE.

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 1.—Separation of State and local taxation.	Yes.		Assembly Amendment No. 1.—For a direct primary.	Yes.
	No.	X		No.	X
Senate Amendment No. 14.—Advancing compensation of State officers.	Yes.		Assembly Amendment No. 7.—Selection or appointment by the several counties of Board of Supervisors, Sheriffs, County Clerks, District Attorneys and other officers.	Yes.	X
	No.	X		No.
Senate Amendment No. 12.—Length of legislative sessions, compensation of members of the Legislature, and limiting expense of employees of the Senate and Assembly.	Yes.	X	Assembly Amendment No. 8.—Concerning public schools, the revenue of the State School Fund, the General State School Tax, and levying of a special State school tax.	Yes.
	No.			No.	X
Senate Amendment No. 2.—Assessment of tax of a mortgage, deed of trust, contract or other obligation by which a debt is secured, and taxes due upon such assessment.	Yes.		Assembly Amendment No. 12.—Organization of State Board of Education, text-books and County Boards of Education.	Yes.
	No.	X		No.	X
Senate Amendment No. 23.—Relating to State indebtedness.	Yes.	X	Assembly Amendment No. 21.—Approval and return of bills by the Governor and the exercise of the veto power.	Yes.	X
	No.			No.
Senate Amendment No. 21.—Extension of the term of existence of corporations.	Yes.	X	"An Act to change the seat of government of the State of California from the city of Sacramento to the town of Berkeley."	Yes.
	No.			No.	X
Senate Amendment No. 22.—Limitation of the expense of employees of the Senate and Assembly.	Yes.	X	"For the San Francisco Seawall Act."
	No.		"Against the San Francisco Seawall Act."		X
Senate Amendment No. 24.—Liability of stockholders of exposition corporation.	Yes.	X	"For the India Basin Act."
	No.		"Against the India Basin Act."		X
Senate Amendment No. 31.—Lotteries and illicit sales of corporate stock, etc.	Yes.
	No.	X

NEARLY TIME.

HOW TO VOTE ON THE AMENDMENTS.

FOURTEEN Constitutional amendments and three acts are submitted to the people to be voted on in today's election. The Times has painstakingly explained all these propositions and given its judgment as to their merits. It now summarizes them, and its counsel as to how voters should act—of course, it being the first suggestion of The Times that each voter study them carefully and form his own conclusions.

Senate Amendment No. 1, relating to a change in the system of taxation of railroads, banks, etc. VOTE NO.

Senate Amendment No. 25, relative to the tax on mortgages. THE TIMES HAS FAVORED THIS AMENDMENT BUT SOME EXPERTS SAY THERE IS A BUG IN IT. VOTE NO.

Assembly Amendment No. 2, to provide for direct primaries and abolish conventions. VOTE NO.

Senate Amendment No. 24, relating to lotteries and bucket shops. VOTE NO.

Senate Amendment No. 14, advancing the salaries of State officers. VOTE NO.

Senate Amendment No. 15, regulating the length of legislative sessions and fixing the pay of legislators. VOTE YES.

Senate Amendment No. 23, extending credit for public improvements. VOTE YES.

Senate Amendment No. 31, extending the lives of certain corporations. VOTE YES.

Senate Amendment No. 22, limiting the daily expense account of the Legislature. VOTE YES.

Senate Amendment No. 23, fixing the credit of exposition companies. VOTE YES.

Assembly Amendment No. 7, making a technical change in the manner of appointing township officers. VOTE YES.

Assembly Amendment No. 8, cutting all but "elementary schools" out of benefit from the State school tax. VOTE NO.

Assembly Amendment No. 23, extending the "time in which the Governor may sign or veto bills. VOTE YES.

Assembly Amendment No. 24, changing the manner of organization of the State Board of Education. VOTE NO.

Act removing the State Capitol from Sacramento to Berkeley. VOTE NO.

Two acts relating to San Francisco harbor, the Seawall Act and the India Basin Act. VOTE NO.

Many thoughtful citizens, realising that the present State Constitution is a fearfully patched and inconsistent instrument, have resolved to vote against all further patching, stamping "no" against every amendment, and to agitate for a convention to formulate an entirely new Constitution.